

A group of twelve local artists have recently opened the Hamilton Artists' Co-operative at 143 James St. N., a centre dedicated to the promotion of the artists and his work, where artists can meet, exhibit and talk.

Busy arranging works for the monthly showing and sale at the Co-op are, left to right, group members Bryce Kanbara, Frank Zavarella, Paul Dymont.